

1. The city parks, along with a new museum on natural history, (provides / provide) plenty of recreational opportunities.
2. The train that uses the platform with all the vending machines usually (arrives / arrive) late.
3. The dance recital, consisting of performers who range from seasoned veterans to toddling kids, (raises / raise) money for the city's performing arts program.
4. Some members of the school board, including the owner of the local supermarket, (opposes / oppose) the proposed ban on sugary snacks.
5. Knitting, a relaxing hobby that I learned from my parents, (requires / require) needles and yarn.
6. The fireworks create noise of epic proportions that (astounds / astound) spectators and (irks / irk) local residents.
7. The transformation causes deviations in the life cycle that (puzzles / puzzle) scientists and (fascinates / fascinate) artists.
8. Miles's research led to groundbreaking theories in the field of artificial intelligence that both (influences / influence) scientists today and (worries / worry) those who fear that a real-life "Judgment Day" may come to pass.
9. A rushed production schedule of a video game often results in careless coding that (triggers / trigger) game-breaking bugs and (exacerbates / exacerbate) memory leaks.
10. Playing the piano requires a certain level of nimbleness in the fingers that always (impresses / impress) Jill.

Answers

1. The city parks, along with a new museum on natural history, (provides / provide) plenty of recreational opportunities.
2. The train that uses the platform with all the vending machines usually (arrives / arrive) late.
3. The dance recital, consisting of performers who range from seasoned veterans to toddling kids, (raises / raise) money for the city's performing arts program.
4. Some members of the school board, including the owner of the local supermarket, (opposes / oppose) the proposed ban on sugary snacks.
5. Knitting, a relaxing hobby that I learned from my parents, (requires / require) needles and yarn.
6. The fireworks create noise of epic proportions that (astounds / astound) spectators and (irks / irk) local residents.
7. The transformation causes deviations in the life cycle that (puzzles / puzzle) scientists and (fascinates / fascinate) artists.
8. Miles's research led to groundbreaking theories in the field of artificial intelligence that both (influences / influence) scientists today and (worries / worry) those who fear that a real-life "Judgment Day" may come to pass.
9. A rushed production schedule of a video game often results in careless coding that (triggers / trigger) game-breaking bugs and (exacerbates / exacerbate) memory leaks.
10. Playing the piano requires a certain level of nimbleness in the fingers that always (impresses / impress) Jill.